A Note from Their Excellencies...

Unto the Barony of Nottingham Coill, does Lucien and Brig, Baron and Baroness, send Greetings.

It seems as fleeting as a dream. Three years ago, We were granted the Honor of serving the Kingdom, and you, as the Baron and Baroness of Nottingham Coill. In many ways, it reminds Us of a Wedding. Specific moments are a bit hazy, but the Love and Joy of all who attended has stayed as fresh in Our minds as though it only happened yesterday.

The phrase “Thank You” seems not enough. Yet it is the most We can offer. Thank you for your kindness, your enthusiasm, your participation, your patience, your gratitude, your joy, your expectations, and your forgiveness. We could not have made this journey without You, and it has been one of the greatest times in Our lives. Any successes of the Barony were because of Your Efforts. Any failures were Ours.

We'd like to thank our Champions, more appropriately, Your Champions. These gentles stepped forward to represent you, and accepted Our Challenge. They stood against, and with Champions from other Baronies, and even the Kingdom, to show that to be a Champion of Nottingham Coill, is to be among the most worthy to be called Champion. Well done, Our Champions. Well done, indeed.

We would also commend the Baronial Scribal Guild. You all worked hard to make certain that those who received recognition also received a beautifully illuminated document to commemorate the occasion. It has been a pleasure to see the skills of these artisans grow over the last three years. Thank you for your hard work and sacrifice.

To those who were there to assist with setting up the day shades, Chairs of State, to retain, carry, corral, and work so hard to make certain that We were where We needed to be, THANK YOU! Not many know exactly how much time, effort and planning go into moving the various Baronial items around. Anyone who says the Baronage (of any Barony) doesn't work hard has never held that honor.

Often forgotten are the Baronial Officers. Without them handling the Administrative side, We could not partake in the "fun" parts. We'd like to thank ALL of the Baronial Officers, past, present, and future, for your hard work and dedication.

We stepped into this role with several tiers of goals in mind. Easy, worthwhile, and difficult. We achieved the easy goals, most of the worthwhile, and a few of the difficult. Are there regrets? Certainly, though We feel that not achieving all of Our goals to be a failure on Our part. We know that Master Elphin and Baroness Delia have goals, and commendable ones indeed. We ask that everyone, from the Cantons, to the Barony as a whole, to step forward and offer them the support they will need to accomplish such worthy aspirations.

At Nottingham Coill Baronial Investiture, We encourage you all to be an active participant. Take the time to try something new. Cheer on a fighter, witness the skills of the archery, view the beautiful entries in the A&S hall (and read the documentation), volunteer for a staff position. Let us all start off the New Year with a new desire to try out new interests, and explore new avenues to partake in. You never know what may just strike your fancy.

Until we meet again, Our love and respect,

*Lucien and Brig,
Baron and Baroness of Nottingham Coill*

A Note from Their Nexcellencies...

Greetings and salutations from Master Elphin and Baroness Delia! Twelfth Night is nigh upon us and preparations for the upcoming Investiture loom large. With this in mind, we would like to encourage any who are interested in becoming a Baronial Champion to put themselves forward.

What are we looking for in a champion? People who have a passion for their discipline who are willing to share that passion in service to the Barony and the dream. Please send your letters of intent to elphin@sc.rr.com. If you intend to give us your letter of intent at Baronial Birthday, please drop us an informal note to let us know.

We are excited to serve in our new capacity and look forward to seeing the best this fine Barony has to offer at Nottingham Coill Baronial Birthday!

Yours in Service to the Barony and the Dream,

Delia and Elphín

Happy New Year to everyone! May the worst day of the year ahead be even better than the best day of the year just ended.

Thank you to all who braved the forecasted snowfall at Yule Toy Tourney, including both Their Majesties (who came down from Virginia) AND Their Highnesses (who came from North Carolina.) Nearly 1100 toys were brought for donation to Country Santa (to be given to children in the Upstate South Carolina area), as well as 100 books, and $160 in cash donations! In every aspect, this year's event set new records. A major round of applause goes to the Autocrat, Maistir Cian mac Cellacháin h'Uí Dublaích, for his imagination and hard work that resulted in such generosity. If you weren't at the event, you also missed a new twist on last year's first-ever Inter-baronial Snowball Fight.

Someone ingenious made a load of snowballs, crocheted out of Very Fluffy yarn, and they were used to hold the Snowball Fight inside the hall. The 'snowballs' were so soft that it was virtually impossible to get hurt. Even those who hadn't intended to participate found themselves grabbing up some 'ammunition' and launching them across the hall. Note: if this is held next year (very likely), stay out of range of Her Highness. Princess Adelhait's aim is deadly! (smile)

As you read this, the Barony's next event is only a few weeks away: Nottingham Coill's Baronial Birthday and Investiture. It's almost hard to believe that our barony will be 39 years old. If you miss this, you'll be missing a wonderful celebration of all that makes our Barony so special. All manner of displays and competitions are on the schedule. (See <https://www.altaniandarait.com/> for information.) Regrettably, we'll be saying Thanks and Fare-thee-well to Baron Lucien and Baroness Brig. But we'll be welcoming Master Elphin and Baroness Delia to succeed them.

Elsewhere in this edition of The Quill you'll find write-ups about the status and doings of all the offices in the barony. Each of the offices would benefit from having deputies or trainees to learn more about the office. Please note that an expression of interest on your part does not commit you to holding down the office forever. But it's an excellent way to learn, and possibly find a great outlet for your energies and talents. We recently had a change of Baronial Herald, from Lady Abigail MacDonald to Master Hagar the Black. And in the next month or so we'll be seeing a change in the Baronial Minister of Arts & Sciences. Mistress Deirdre Morgan is nearly at the end of her term and already has solicited Letters of Intent from those who wish to fill the position. But that's not all. In the February issue of The Quill, you'll find a request from me. My term as Baronial Seneschal ends in June 2019, so start considering if this office is one you might want to take on. Feel free to contact me with any questions. More details will be available next month.

Final thought / suggestion: Every month I post a list of those in the barony who have received awards ("Vivant, Hooray, and Congratulations!") Additionally, I provide links to the recommendation forms and the Order of Precedence, so you can find out who has (or doesn't have) what. I recently saw a great and simple suggestion on the Kingdom of Aethelmearc page, and decided to share it with you.

- Make a Google Sheet (a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet will work as well.) Down the left side, list the names of everyone in your canton, barony, household, circle of friends (your choice.)
- Across the top, list all the awards in the barony and/or the kingdom.
- Then start searching the kingdom OP (<http://op.atlantia.sca.org/>) for those names, and fill in the blanks. This makes it easy to see at a glance where people stand, and what they might be considered for.
- Here is a list of Nottingham Coill's awards (see the bottom of the link page: http://op.atlantia.sca.org/barony_awards.php?barony_id=23).
- This is a list of all of Atlantia's awards with descriptions, by relative precedence: <http://op.atlantia.sca.org/awards.php>.
- Lastly, if you wish to focus on a specific award track (service, rapier combat, Arts & Sciences, etc.), this is a list of all of Atlantia's awards, sorted by discipline: http://op.atlantia.sca.org/award_discipline.php

Until we meet again, I wish you a very satisfying and prosperous New Year.

Yours in service to The Dream and the Barony,

*Dame Morwenna Trevethan
Baronial Seneschal*

Vivant, Hooray, and Congratulations!

The many efforts of, and recognitions given to, the members of our barony deserve to stand and shine all by themselves. Here is the latest list. (And a lovely long list it is!)

Lady Marie Helene of the New Forest was elevated to the rank of "Capital-H Herald", within the College of Herald's and Scribes, in recognition of her years of service as a voice and a consulting herald.

As always, I encourage you to take a few minutes to look up some of your friends and acquaintances in <http://op.atlantia.sca.org/> and see what awards they have . . . or, more accurately, what awards they DON'T have but probably should. Then send in a recommendation (for a kingdom award) via <http://award.atlantia.sca.org/>. It's very quick and easy to do. If you want to recommend someone for a baronial award, here's the form to use: https://award.atlantia.sca.org/baron_new.php?R=-1&B=-1. And just to make it really easy, here's a list of all the current baronial awards: http://op.atlantia.sca.org/barony_awards.php?barony_id=23 (at the bottom of the page.)

Minister of Arts & Sciences Meeting at Unevent 2018

... by Baroness Delia Flammen

- We started with a reminder that 4th quarter reports are due on January 15*
- Announce A&S competitions for upcoming events six months in advance to give people time.*
- The KMoAS needs two deputies: a training deputy and one to help with Guilds.*
- University sites are needed. Outdoor sites have different requirements than indoor sites. There is a University fund to help cover site fees.*
- The A&S Links website has been redesigned and the broken links have been fixed.*
- There may be another MoAs meeting at KASF.*
- Tempora Atlantia will be at Crown and Twelfth night.*
- Sign up for the Lyceum at Twelfth night to be matched with a mentor at KASF*

Chronicler Meeting at Unevent 2018

.... by Lady Merewyn Scharp

- The newsletters should be published by the 5th of every month.*
- Releases need to be obtained from anyone providing a submission to a newsletter. Releases need to be sent to the release deputy. There were various questions about when a release is needed and which release form is the correct one for different scenarios.*
- The newsletter should be sent to the King and Queen, Prince and Princess, Kingdom Chronicler, Kingdom Archivist, Kingdom Historian, Baron and Baroness, Baronial Seneschal and Baronial Webminister. Then it should be published to the populace.*
- There was some discussion regarding the use of Facebook as an official channel of communication now that there's an official Kingdom Social Media officer. There will be forthcoming policies regarding that.*
- Some suggestions were offered for how to encourage more participation/submissions from the populace.*

UNEVENT - The Chatelain Meeting

In Attendance

Lady Abigael of Inishowen mka Jessica R A Meyers

Lady Azzah mka Jennifer Spann

Lady Altani Bayar Vachir mka Lynn Conradt-Eberlin

Take Away

- The Quarterly reports will be migrating from a template that is emailed in, to an electronic version that goes directly to the Kingdom and Reginal officers. The report will still need to be emailed to the Baronial Chatelain.
- Baroness Emma, Kingdom Chatelain, requested that we pay attention to not only newcomers, but returning SCAdians as well. It is also important to let current members know they are wanted and appreciated. If there is a member you notice is not attending meetings or fighter practices, contact them and let them know they are missed!
 - There was encouragement to share best practices with regards to programs, packets and gifts. What works best for you? What failed? What will you try next?
 - Mistress Molly is working with Social Media policy and will be updating us.

Baronial And Canton Future Plans

- The three of us discussed ways to increase knowledge of the SCA, participation in our demos and encouraging member presence. We agreed that a Monthly Chatelain meeting would be beneficial in sharing ideas and helping each other. Azzah is investigating internet options.
- Kingdom has requested an emphasis on Demo policies (already written). During the 2nd quarter of 2019, we will be reviewing that policy with the Barony and our Cantons.
- Creating Search Engine Optimization terms, phrases and keywords for websites within our Barony. This will bring us up on the radar of newcomers who might not have heard of us in South Carolina.
- Watch for more plans to come!

Next month—What is a Chatelain? Why do we need them? How can I be one?

CHATELAIN REPORTS ARE DUE JANUARY 15. PLEASE EMAIL THEM TO: chatelainreports@atlantia.sca.org,

The Back Page...

Hello and happy New Year everyone! Hopefully the holidays were filled with fun, family (blood or chosen or both) and good food! Now we are all starting to look forward to our Baronial Birthday which is just a few short weeks! Eeek! Please keep the Quill in mind while you enjoy the event and all the great activities it has to offer!

Should you choose to submit an article or work for the Quill, please include the appropriate release form or a clear statement in e-mail that your submission can be used in the Nottingham Quill. Please send submissions to me at (chronicler@nottinghamcoill.atlantia.sca.org). You can find the release forms at <http://chronicler.atlantia.sca.org/Releases.html> Also, please do not send me submissions via Facebook because it is much harder to keep up with all of them there. A.K.A. I will most assuredly lose them and then we'll both be sad ☹

*Yours in Service to the Dream,
Lady Merewyn Scharp, Baronial Chronicler*
