A Note from Their Excellencies...

Happy New Year, noble populace! At last it is January! January is named for Janus, the two-faced Roman god of beginnings and doorways. We do hope this is indeed at a doorway through which we can exit the worst of our current situation and enter a new phase that will see us finally able to safely gather in person again. Until that happy day, we must remain cautious and careful, for we would like to see ALL of our friends again.

As you are no doubt aware the SCA BOD has shut down official events until June. As the conditions start to improve, we can at least start having local activities: careful and socially distant A&S and archery, then as they improve more, we can start expanding what we do accordingly. Until then, there are still virtual events to enjoy, like Twelfth Night. In addition to the usual Friday night social and Saturday court and watch party, there is going to be a virtual Grand Ball. Then two weeks later there will be another Royal Court: Andalusia Court at the Alhambra with our neighbors in Hidden Mountain.

Plans are already underway for Nottingham Coill Baronial Birthday in February. Our autocrat Mistress Etain is planning to spread out activities over the next two months leading up to the event and is asking for volunteers to share ideas or sponsor an activity, class, or contest, so please let her know if you can help. As mentioned in the November Quill letter, We wish to sponsor an A&S competition on the theme of pearls in any medium, in honor of Our recently celebrated 30th wedding anniversary. We look forward to seeing your entries.

We are certainly glad to see the end of perhaps the most difficult year of our lives. Janus is called the two-faced God because one face looks to the challenges of the past and one to the hope of the future, and this is how we all find ourselves today: facing forward with hope and determination. May you all have a wondrous Twelfth Night!

Sincerely,

Baron Elphin

Baroness Delia

Well. We made it to 2021. Let's hope this year goes by better.

Most of the Kingdom, including the Barony of Nottingham Coill and all of its Cantons, remain closed to all activities. SCA in-person events are cancelled through the end of May. The good news is there are vaccines now available, which should start to help things improve as they get distributed.

Until then, we do things virtually. Baronial Birthday has switched to being a virtual event. Please keep an ear out for Mistress Etain as she does what she can to still make it a fun event. Baronial Birthday is scheduled for February 20. Mark the date, and I hope to see you all there!

Other upcoming events - Kingdom Twelfth Night (virtual) is January 8-10. Their Majesties are doing a virtual Royal Court (Andalucia Court at the Alhambra) in Hidden Mountain on January 23. Be sure to tune in, as I'm sure there will be some recognition of some of you!

Like all of you, I was saddened that we had to cancel Yule Toy Tourney. I think that event ranks as one of the favorites for MANY people. It's not only held in a beautiful place, but is always a lot of fun with plenty of laughter and smiles. It's also an important event from a charity standpoint. We collect a LOT of toys for needy children in the upstate of SC at that event, and each year, the generosity of the Barony increases. This year, we were unable to have the event, but that didn't stop our heart. Thanks to your generosity and the coordinated efforts of Dame Morwenna and Mistress Caroline who collected the toys you donated from around the state and delivered them to Country Santa, we donated 563 toys! That's not counting the monetary donations that rolled in from the populace of the Barony and other areas. That's amazing, we didn't even have the event, and we still donated 563 toys. Y'all are amazing in your kindness and your generosity, and I'm so proud to be a member of this Barony. Thank you to all who donated, whether it was toys or money, and a special thanks to Dame Morwenna and Mistress Caroline for making sure toys got collected and delivered.

We are all missing each other. It hurts to not be with our friends and our chosen family for so long. I was lucky the other day in the grocery store when I spotted Lady Lilith and had the chance to say hi (from 6 feet away, or course). It hit me hard then, how much I was missing my people.

The other day, as I was driving home from work, I realized I had a strange feeling, and emotion I couldn't readily identify. I thought about it during the 2 hour drive, and finally came to the realization. I was feeling lost. A strange emotion, but it makes sense. I haven't seen my friends in almost a year. Last event I went to was Ymir in late February 2020. Since then, I've been on a few video conferences, I've been by Mistress Etain's a couple of times to pick something up and seen her and the family briefly, and I've run into a couple people out and about. But I haven't seen many of you, and I'm feeling lost without you. No events, no sitting around a campfire passing mead around, no hugs, no sitting around a feast table listening to bards sing as we eat amazing food.

It's hard. It really is. We are all going through this. We miss the good times, which have always helped us get through the bad times. There's a saying "You never know what you've got until you've lost it". I think that applies here. I didn't really realize the depth of my love for all of you and how much I enjoyed being with you, until I couldn't. I imagine most of you all feel the same way.

Hang in there. We will get through this. We have each other to lean on, to get support from, and to look forward to seeing each other when this is over. And it will be over. We just have to be patient and continue to be careful.

Again, if you are feeling down and need someone to talk to, reach out to me, or Their Excellencies, or any member of the Barony. If you need supplies, are having trouble paying a bill or two, need a socially distanced shoulder to cry on, or just need to friend to talk with, we are all here for each other. You are not alone. Even in lockdown or quarantine, you are never alone. Please remember that. Reach out if you need help. Please.

Be safe, take precautions, do the right thing, and know that you are loved and cherished.

Be well, my friends. I love you all.

Cian, Seneschal

VIRTUAL: Ymir - The Giant Sleeps

February 27 2021 (12 PM - 11 PM)
Barony of Windmasters' Hill

Ymir, The giant sleeps, and we shall provide the giant all the comforts we can manage to keep them happy in their home. The arts and science competition will be to create period examples of home comforts. Anything in this theme which makes the home comfortable is welcome, be it nice furniture, a warm blanket, hats, clothing, glass work, candles, or a nice mead or warm bread. The options are endless; if it would comfort you in dark times, surely it will be a comfort to the frost giant. The event will focus on A&S, with a royal court and bardic. Hello friends and neighbors! Happy New Year! I know we were all ready for it and now that its finally here, I'm trying to decide how to feel about it. There's a lot going on in the mundane world AND in the Knowne World. So much to keep up with. We have quite the impressive list of virtual events coming up to slake our thirst for the SCA! I'm looking forward to University myself and have greatly enjoyed being able to participate online. I was rarely able to attend in person previously so this has been amazing for me. If you're teaching a class with a handout, this could be a GREAT contribution toward the Quill...just a thought ☺ We love when our people share their work with the Barony in our monthly newsletter!

Should you choose to submit an article or work for the Quill, please include the appropriate release form or a clear statement in e-mail that your submission can be used in the Nottingham Quill (release forms can be found here: <http://chronicler.atlantia.sca.org/Releases.php>). Please send submissions to me at (chronicler@nottinghamhillcoill.atlantia.sca.org). You can find the release forms at <http://chronicler.atlantia.sca.org/Releases.html> If you have any questions or need help with the forms, please let me know.

Yours in Service to the Dream,

Lady Merewyn Scharp, Baronial Chronicler
