August was a busy month. First came Pennsic War, then the Baronial Picnic and finally Sacred Stone's Birthday. Pennsic was, as usual, both incredibly fun and equally taxing. It was a delight to see friends We haven't seen in years and to make new friends who share our common interests. Following Our return from the War it was a short, frantic week until the Picnic. It was wonderful to connect with so many members of Our Barony and the lake was very refreshing on a hot summer day. We were delighted by the turnout- we had 71 people attend, and many of them newcomers. As of Our writing this we are looking forward to Sacred Stone's 40th Birthday this weekend.

Looking to events in the upcoming month, on September 10th there is a demo at the Upstate Renaissance Faire, details are unknown to Us at this time but one or both of Us hope to go to this demo to help grow our Barony. On the 24th We are going to Silver Chalice, which promises to be a fun event. Then the following weekend We intend to go to Coronation. As it is in the Barony of Caer Near (Ashland VA) We do not expect to see many of you there but We will be going to witness the Crowning of our new King and Queen!

We are delighted to announce that Magestra Etain of Sutherland and Lady Mizuno Sakami have graciously agreed to be Co-Autocrats for Yule Toy Journey, so it should appear on the Kingdom Calendar soon. We still need an event steward for Baronial Birthday, so please consider it.

From the Quill of Their Excellencies

At Pennsic this year We heard a lot of people saying “I’ve forgotten how to SCA.” Tents were left in storage during the years of pandemic and were thus found to not be waterproof during the rainstorms of Pennsic. Many a weapon and piece of armor failed because they had been neglected during that time. So, in preparation for War of the Wings, let’s all get busy remembering how to do this hobby we all love. Please give everything a once-over now, while there is still time to make repairs or order replacements. Even relatively mundane items could have issues, like a belt with dried out and cracked leather and expired sun screen, so check everything. Compose lists of what you need to bring: it’s hard to share a mug with friends when you don’t have a mug (though Claybaby Pottery can help you with that dilemma!).

We are planning a potluck lunch so bring a dish to share. We haven’t decided what our food contribution will be yet, but we’ll bring lots of bottled water. Please feel free to drop in the event page on Facebook to get more info and to coordinate food plans to help avoid unnecessary duplication. Bear in mind that His Excellency feels no amount of dessert could be counted as a duplication of any sort.

Speaking of mugs, We hope to lift Ours with you at one of these events soon!

Greetings unto the populace of the Barony of Nottingham Coill,

It has been a hectic month with getting back into school schedule again. My hat is off to the teachers that are back to teaching and having to keep all the kids engaged.

The Baronial Picnic on Aug 20th was an exceptional event with lovely weather and great friends to see again. Oh, and lots of new folks that were introduced to their respective local groups. Thank you all for welcoming the new comers and answering their questions.

War of the Wings is coming soon so please get your reservations I by the end of September and reserve your space as part of the Barony so that we have the properly allotted space. Lady Lilith is coordinating the Baronial encampment this year.

Travel safe, have fun, and make stuff.

Diary of a Crazy Chronicler

The weather is becoming cooler. I look out the windows hoping to see the leaves on the trees start to turn into a rainbow of beautiful colors. It's this time of year I moved here for. Fall is a time of renewal. It's a time to examine what new opportunities have been knocking at your door — quietly throughout the summer. Now they are pounding on the door begging to be let in. Take this time to look for new ways to serve the Barony or Kingdom. Reach out to someone new who you know would love to be part of the Society if they only knew it existed. Try a new form or art or fighting style. In short, take a leap of faith and try something new.

This message of renewal and hope is brought to you by your Crazy Chronicler,

Gwenfrewi (Gwennie)
