By the time you are reading this Dame Norwenna will have started accepting Letters of Intent from prospective candidates for the Baronage of Nottinghamhill Coill. We hope you, yes you, will consider if the time is right for you (and possibly a potential partner) to step into the role. You have until September 30 to get a Letter of Intent in if you do decide to do so.

I know what many of you are thinking "Me? No way, I can't do that!" Trust me, We said that too. But circumstances changed, We thought "OK, let's try it" and there it began Our travels down a road both strange and wondrous. Don't dismiss the idea of this particular service to the Barony out of hand. You could be passing up an incredible opportunity to take on one of the most challenging and rewarding jobs in the SCA and make a real substantive difference to our Society. Make no mistake: the Job can indeed be quite a challenge. Juggling the needs of populace, royals and one's mundane life can be at times difficult. But there are benefits, many unlooked for, that would surprise you. One of the greatest and most pleasant surprises for us is the chance to get to know so many people in so many diverse areas. As baronage one must interact with all the disciplines one can; this gives you the opportunity to really talk to these good gentles and witness the good that they do.

Glancing at the Calendar, We intend to go to the demo at the Upstate Renaissance Festival. We look forward to Silver Chalice, one of Our favorite out of Barony events, two weeks after. His Excellency has consulted the great mathematicians and realized this year is the 30th anniversary of His very first rapier tournament win at Silver Chalice. In celebration of that We will be providing a silver chalice to commemorate the occasion.

From the Quill of Their Excellencies

War of the Wings is coming up fast. This incredible event always delivers great fun and excitement; we hope to see many of you there camping with us. There will be a Baronial potluck on Friday of the war, followed by a Baronial court, so please make plans to attend even if you camp elsewhere.

We look forward to seeing who among you will consider stepping up to be baronage. We trust that whoever that will be will do the job well; doing their part to make this great Barony shine!

Yours in Service,

Elphin Delia

War of the Wings

Greetings to All,

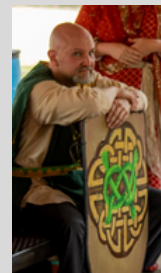

As I write this month's missive Pennsic 50 is over and we have just completed the Baronial Picnic, which I heard went off quite well as I was unable to attend this year. There are a few things that are going on in September within the Barony, one of which is a demo on September 8th and 9th at the Upstate Renaissance Faire in the Canton of Falcon Cree and the Baronial Workshop on September 30th. And let us not forget that War of the Wings will be held on 17th through the 22nd of October.

At the time of publication, we should be about half way through the period of submission of Letters of Intent for those that wish to be the next Baronage of our lovely Barony. If you are interested in putting in a letter of intent please check in the Quill as there will be articles from Dame Morwenna about the current and upcoming steps.

We are still looking for a Baronial Chatelaine as our previous one had asked to step down and we had not received any letter of intent from anyone at the time this missive was being written. Please contact Baroness Delia, Baron Elphin, and myself if you are interested in taking over the position.

Have fun and make stuff and hopefully the weather is starting to cool down.

*In Service,
Likerion*
