Unto the Barony of Nottinghamill Coill come glad tidings,

On December 9, 2023, His Majesty Ragnarr announced that the next Baron and Baroness of our fair land will be Lord Likerion Volkovich and Boiarynia Ceara of Novgorod.

Vivant to them, and thanks to Master Alwin of Nottinghamill Coill and Lady Sofia Eleonora De-la Mar - their honorable opponents.

The barony will be in very good hands.

Yours in service to The Dream and Nottinghamill Coill,

Greetings to our next Baronage, Ceara and Likerion!

We would like to thank not only Boyarina Ceara and Lord Likerion but also Lady Sofia and Master Alwin for putting themselves forward as potential candidates for the role.

We look forward with great anticipation to what our soon-to-be new Excellencies will do!

We look forward with great anticipation to what our soon-to-be new Excellencies will do!

Yours in Service,

Elphin Delia
Baron Baroness

Greetings to the wonderful populus of Nottinghill Coill from Likerion and Ceara,

We would like to say how humbled and grateful we are for the trust placed in us by both Their Majesties, to hold these lands for the crown, and the populus of our fair Barony to lead our people for the next coming Baronial tenure. We are appreciative of Baron Elphin and Baroness Delia for their excellent stewardship during an especially difficult time, and for ensuring that our Barony not merely survived but is thriving. We would also like to thank Master Alwin of Nottinghill Coill and Lady Sofia Eleonora De-la Mar for their graciousness and willingness to serve.

We are very much looking forward to seeing all of you at Nottinghill Coill Baronial Birthday and Investiture. Hopefully many of you are planning on submitting letters of intent for the Baronial Champions Tournaments. Those held at NCBB will be Archery, Armored Combat, Rapier/Cut and Thrust Combat, Thrown Weapons. The "letter of intent" need not be formal, a simple message with your name, and which championship(s) you're competing for sent by E-mail, Facebook Messenger, or Baronial Discord is all that's needed. However, if it brings you joy, you may of course, be as creative, flowery, dramatic, or formal in the letter as you wish.

Until then, may your holidays be filled with happiness and peace.

Baronial Seneschal: Request for Letter of Intent

With the announcement that our Baronial Seneschal Lord Vikerion Volkovich will become our next Baron, a successor for the role must be found. This is one of two mandatory positions within a chapter, the Exchequer being the other one. The Seneschal (at any level) serves as the chief legal representative/administrative officer; as such there are (or can be) real-world implications for your actions and the decisions your make.

There are a few requirements for becoming a Baronial Seneschal:

- You must be of legal age, in order to sign checks and contracts, serve on the Financial Committee, and make decisions legally.
- You must be acceptable to Their Excellencies and to the Kingdom Seneschal.
- You must complete the Seneschal 101 and 201 classes within the first 2 - 3 months after appointment.

Beyond these requirements, there are other considerations and traits which are beneficial, but not mandatory:

- Organized, and have room (electronic or hard-copy-space) for a variety of documents, both current and historical.
- Discreet, and able to keep confidences.
- Diplomatic/tactful.
- Able to make decisions, consulting other appropriate individuals as needed, and knowing when to pass things up the line, e.g. to the Kingdom Seleschal

- A decent communicator, who keeps the barony appropriately informed, including via “The Quill”.
- Able to meet deadlines and due date for reports, and other situations.
- Accessible by phone, mail, and electronically (email).
- Responsive to others’ needs and questions, even if you don’t personally agree with the person or the issue.
- Able to manage, but not micro-manage.
- Aware of the rules and regulations: SCA, Atlantia, Nottingham Coill.
- Flexible/adaptable: situations change, often abruptly, and you need to deal with them in a timely and appropriate fashion.

The position can, at times, be a challenge, but it also can be the most satisfying and gratifying one you’ll ever hold.

If you wish to be considered for the position, please send a Letter of Intent via email to me (depsenscga@atlantia.org) with copies to Their impending Excellencies Lord Likerion (Reshtani@gmail.com) and Boiarynia Ceara of Novgorod (TrueFiberGeek@gmail.com), no later than Sunday, December 31st, 2023 (i.e. New Year’s Eve).

The person chosen for the position will step into the job on Saturday, January 20, 2024, when Likerion is invested as Baron.

If you have any questions about the position that you would like to ask, please feel free to reach out to me or Lord Likerion.

Yours as ever in service to Nottingham Coill,
Dame Morwenna Trevethan
Regional Deputy Seneschal: SC/GA
