Greetings to Our Wonderful Barony!

It has been an incredibly busy few weeks since our last missive. We've had the joy of seeing a period inspired coronation, gotten to visit our nearest out of Kingdom neighbors, seen an inspiring (if slightly damp or torrential downpour) Crown Tournament, had a delightful and whimsical visit to Hawkwood, and finally enjoyed a wonderful and amazing event here in our own Barony hosted by St. George's.

As crazy as this schedule has been, one thing has really stood out to us: How amazing and hospitable our Barony is. We want you all to know that we are so very proud of all of you! We were delighted to see so many of you making sure Her Royal Highness had a great first event as Princess at Dragon's Fire. The day was fun, relaxing, silly, and exciting; sometimes all at once! The Event staff did an amazing job! If anything didn't go to plan, it must have been handled so quickly and discretely that we certainly didn't notice. Thank you everyone who made for such a wonderful day.

As always: have fun, make stuff, do stuff, and we look forward to seeing you at a future event. We remain In Service,

Likerion Ceara

From the Quill of Their Excellencies

Baronial Progress

June 15 - Not Quite Quarterly Braggin'
Rights IV

July 13 - Warrior's Games

Greetings to Nottingham Coill!

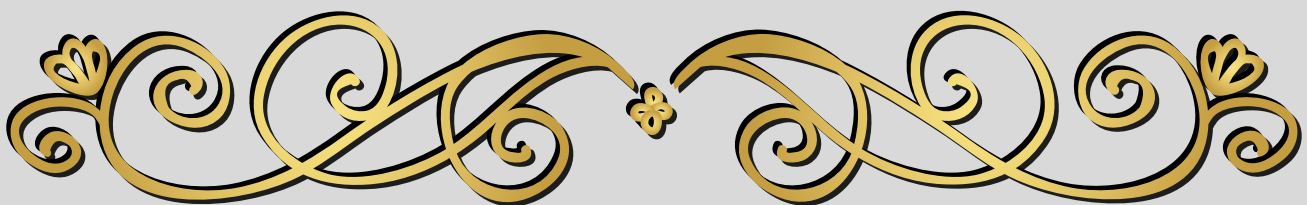

We will be seeing a lot of names changing in the next couple of months as officers change. I have been posting the open spots as they become available on the Facebook page. If you are interested in helping with a Deputy's position, please contact the office holder so that you can make sure you understand the responsibilities, and the position is available. All officers and deputies for each baronial and canton officer should have a current warrant for their office. This will ensure you are recognized as the person holding the office position and that you have completed any required training. Speaking of training, Atlantia University will be here soon and you can still register to attend virtual classes. The link is <https://university.atlantia.sea.org/> and registration is open until the evening of Wednesday, June 5th. The classes will be in-person on Saturday, June 8th in the Barony of Bright Hills (Hampstead, MD) and virtual on Sunday, June 9th, starting at noon. The University is also looking for volunteers to help with virtual classrooms as a teaching assistant. If you are familiar with the use of Zoom meetings, contact deputyta@university.atlantia.sea.org, Snorri Halfdan, Deputy Teaching Assistant.

Already posted, we are looking for a new Exchequer for the Barony. This is our Treasurer, and the position comes with a large group of people who are ready to help the new office holder. The new Exchequer must have taken Exchequer 101 which will be offered on June 9th. It is suggested to also take Exchequer 201 and 301. I am already signed up for these classes also. The new person will have the assistance of all our Canton Exchequers and the Kingdom Exchequer, and all the people that have held the office previously. We will be creating a deputy position for the Exchequer to handle all the baronial possessions for storage, cleanliness, and replacement. We can also have a Deputy Exchequer to assist, but the two cannot live in the same household or be related.

The next local event will be Not Quite Quarterly Braggin' Rights in Ritterwald (Aiken, SC) on Saturday, June 15 th . See here for more information about this FREE event:

We recently had a very quick change for our Kingdom Chatelaine. The following weeks showed that our Barony is missing Canton information about which of our gentles hold those Canton offices. My only option was to track down each person involved to request they forward the requested information to the new Kingdom Chatelaine. If you could please just take the time to help me keep this information up-to-date, I could have simply sent all the information one time without hesitation and without having to contact everyone. I am requesting that if you are a Canton Officer, please send to seneschal@nottinghillcoill.atlantia.sea.org this information: Your mundane name, SCA name, membership number with expiration date, your email, your phone number, and your warrant expiration date. If you have confidential concerns about your email and phone number, then some way to contact you that is reliable? I promise that you have never heard of most of my security clearances when I served on submarine duty, I can keep a secret. Thank you.

*Yours in Service,
Lord Roderick Mund
Seneschal, Barony of Nottinghill Coill*

Diary of a Crazy Chronicler

Change 4.0

Well it's official. This will be my final Quill. I have enjoyed creating it over the past two years but I am a creature of change and needed to look for a new challenge.

If you have not heard, Master Dressel will be taking over as Chronicler with the June issue. I know I leave you all in good hands and am excited to see what he does with the newsletter in the upcoming months.

Thank you to everyone for your encouragement over the past two years. Especially thank you to Their Excellencies Delia and Elphin for giving me the opportunity and Their Excellencies Ceara and Likeron for their continued encouragement.

As always in service to the Society,
Kingdom, Barony and Dream,

*Queenbevi of Abergavanny
(Just Gwenie)*
